

§ 15A-1063. Mistrial for impossibility of proceeding.

Upon motion of a party or upon his own motion, a judge may declare a mistrial if:

- (1) It is impossible for the trial to proceed in conformity with law; or
- (2) It appears there is no reasonable probability of the jury's agreement upon a verdict. (1977, c. 711, s. 1.)