§ 36C-1-109. Methods and waiver of notice.

- (a) Subject to subsection (d) of this section, notice to a person under this Chapter or the sending of a document to a person under this Chapter must be accomplished in a manner reasonably suitable under the circumstances and likely to result in receipt of the notice or document.
 - (1) Permissible methods of notice or methods for sending a document include first-class mail, personal delivery, delivery to the person's last known place of residence or place of business, or a properly directed electronic message.
 - (2) Notice shall be deemed to be given upon the occurrence of any of the following:
 - a. When personally delivered by hand to the person.
 - b. When transmitted by facsimile.
 - c. When placed in the hands of a nationally recognized courier service for delivery.
 - d. When received by the person if sent by registered or certified United States mail, return receipt requested.
 - e. Three days after depositing the notice in a regularly maintained receptacle for the deposit of United States mail if sent by regular United States mail.
 - (3) Notice by any means other than those described in subdivision (2) of this subsection shall be deemed to be given for all purposes upon the date of actual receipt.
- (b) Notice otherwise required under this Chapter, or a document otherwise required to be sent under this Chapter, need not be provided to a person whose identity or location is unknown to and not reasonably ascertainable by the trustee.
- (c) The person to be notified or to be sent a document may waive notice under this Chapter.
- (d) Notice of a judicial proceeding must be given as provided in Article 2 of this Chapter. (2005-192, s. 2; 2007-106, s. 5.)
