§ 36C-1-111. Nonjudicial settlement agreements.

- (a) For purposes of this section, "interested persons" means persons whose consent would be required in order to achieve a binding settlement were the settlement to be approved by the court.
- (b) Interested persons may enter into a binding nonjudicial settlement agreement with respect to any of the following matters involving a trust:
 - (1) The approval of a trustee's report or accounting;
 - (2) Direction to a trustee to perform or refrain from performing a particular administrative act or the grant to a trustee of any necessary or desirable administrative power, including a power granted under G.S. 36C-8-816;
 - (3) The resignation or appointment of a trustee and the determination of a trustee's compensation;
 - (4) Transfer of a trust's principal place of administration; and
 - (5) Liability of a trustee for any action taken under subdivisions (1) through (4) of this subsection.
- (c) A nonjudicial settlement agreement is valid only to the extent it does not violate a material purpose of the trust and includes terms and conditions that could be properly approved by the court under this Chapter or other applicable law.
- (d) Any interested person may request the court to approve a nonjudicial settlement agreement, to determine whether the representation as provided in Article 3 of this Chapter was adequate, and to determine whether the agreement contains terms and conditions the court could have properly approved.
