

§ 58-82A-50. Discipline.

The State Fire Marshal may deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew any license under this Article if any of the following apply:

- (1) The licensee violates any provision of this Article.
- (2) The applicant or licensee violates any requirement of a permit issued under G.S. 14-413.
- (3) The licensed display operator or proximate audience display operator fails to provide direct supervision and control over individuals who assist the licensee in handling, using, exhibiting, or displaying pyrotechnics.
- (4) The licensed display operator, proximate audience display operator, or assistant display operator is convicted of a crime under Article 54 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes.
- (5) Another state revokes the permit, license, or certification issued to the licensee by that state.
- (6) A material misstatement, misrepresentation, or fraud was committed in obtaining a license under this Article.
- (7) Cheating on an examination required by this Article.
- (8) Knowingly aiding or abetting others to evade or violate the provisions of this Article.
- (9) Any existing cause for which the issuance of the license could have been denied had it been known to the State Fire Marshal at the time of issuance. (2010-22, s. 7; 2023-151, s. 11.31.)
