1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO AMEND RULE 68 OF THE RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE
3 REGARDING OFFERS OF JUDGMENT.

4 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

5 Section 1. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 68 reads as rewritten:
6 "Rule 68. Offer of judgment and disclaimer.

7 (a) Offer of judgment. –

8 (1) At any time more than ~~40~~30 days before the trial begins, a party
9 defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party ~~an a written~~ 10 offer to allow judgment to be ~~taken entered~~ against ~~him~~ for the money or 11 property or to the effect specified in his offer, with costs then accrued. ~~the~~
12 defending party and in favor of the adverse party for the relief specified 13 in the offer, plus any interest that has accrued as of that date, and, as 14 may be awarded by the court, costs and statutorily authorized attorneys'
15 fees incurred as of that date. The defending party shall not file the 16 written offer with the court at this time.

17 (2) If within ~~40~~30 days after the service of the offer the adverse party
18 serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file
19 the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service ~~thereof~~
20 ~~and thereupon the clerk shall enter judgment. thereof. The court shall~~

1 determine costs, interest, and statutorily authorized attorneys' fees and
2 enter judgment accordingly. An offer not accepted within 10-30 days
3 after its service shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence of the offer is 4 not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs. The defending 5 party shall file the offer deemed withdrawn prior to the proceeding to
6 determine costs. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is damages
7 assessed by the finder of fact are not more favorable than greater than the 8 amount stated in the offer, the offeree must pay the costs incurred after 9 the making service of the offer. The fact that an offer is made served but 10 not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer.

11 (3) This subsection applies only to claims for monetary damages in which 12 any nonmonetary claims are ancillary and incidental to the monetary
13 claims.

14 (b) Conditional offer of judgment for damages. – A party defending against a
15 claim arising in contract or quasi contract may, with his or her responsive pleading, serve
16 upon the claimant an offer in writing that if ~~he~~ the party fails in his or her defense, the 17 damages shall be assessed at a specified sum; and if the claimant signifies his or her
18 acceptance thereof in writing within 20 days of the service of such offer, and on the trial
19 prevails, ~~his~~ damages shall be assessed accordingly. If the claimant does not accept the 20 offer, he or she must prove ~~his~~ damages as if the offer had not been made. If the damages
21 assessed in the claimant's favor do not exceed the sum stated in the offer, the party
22 defending shall recover the costs in respect to the question of damages.

23 (c) Definitions. – For purposes of this rule:

24 (1) 'Costs' mean the court costs that the court is authorized by law to award.
25 Costs do not include interest and attorneys' fees.

26 (2) 'Offer' means all relief tendered to the offeree pursuant to this rule.
27 Offer does not include costs, interest, or attorneys' fees. Further, offer
28 does not mean an offer of a lump sum that purports to include any or all 29 of the following: costs, interest, or attorneys' fees."

30 Section 2. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 84 is amended by adding a form at the end to read:

31 "(17) OFFER OF JUDGMENT UNDER RULE 68(A).

32 Defendant offers that judgment be entered against it and in favor of Plaintiff for 33 $ _____, plus interest that has accrued as of the time of service of this offer, and, as 34 may be awarded by the court, costs and statutorily authorized attorneys' fees incurred as 35 of the time of service of this offer."

36 Section 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 1997, and applies to offers of 37 judgment made on or after that date.
