1 (b) When requested by a designated local Homeland Security director a local fire chief,
2 a county fire marshal, or an emergency services director or, when there is no designated local 3 Homeland Security director, local fire chief, county fire marshal, or emergency services
4 director, by a local law enforcement agency, the North Carolina Department of Justice may 5 provide to the requesting director, chief, marshal, director, or agency an applicant's criminal
6 history from the State and National Repositories of Criminal Histories. The local Homeland

11 fingerprints and other identifying information required by the State or National Repositories.
12 The fingerprints of the individual shall be forwarded to the State Bureau of Investigation for a 13 search of the State criminal history record file, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall 14 forward a set of fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal 15 history record check. The local Homeland Security director, local fire chief, county fire

27 of that director, chief, marshal, or ~~agency~~ agency, except as provided in subsection (h) of this 28 section.

29 (d) If the applicant's verified criminal history record check reveals one or more 30 convictions covered under subdivision (a)(2) of this section, then the conviction shall constitute 31 just cause for not selecting the applicant for the position or for dismissing the person from a 32 current position with the local fire department or emergency medical services. The conviction 33 shall not automatically prohibit volunteering or employment; however, the following factors
34 shall be considered by the local Homeland Security director, local fire chief, county fire 35 marshal, emergency services director, or local law enforcement agency in determining whether 36 the position shall be denied:

- 40 (4) The circumstances surrounding the commission of the crime, if known;
- 41 (5) The nexus between the criminal conduct of the person and the duties of the 42 person;
- 43 (6) The prison, jail, probation, parole, rehabilitation, and employment records of 44 the person since the date the crime was committed; and
- 45 (7) The subsequent commission by the person of a crime listed in subsection (a) 46 of this section.

47 (e) The local fire department or emergency medical services may deny the applicant the 48 position or dismiss an applicant who refuses to consent to a criminal history record check or 49 use of fingerprints or other identifying information required by the State or National 50 Repositories of Criminal Histories. This refusal constitutes just cause for the denial of the 51 position or the dismissal from the position.

1 (f) The local fire department or emergency medical services may extend a conditional 2 offer of the position pending the results of a criminal history record check authorized by this
3 section.

8 (h) A fire protection entity that is prohibited by federal law or policy from obtaining 9 criminal history information about applicants because it is not a governmental entity may 10 request that an entity not under such a restriction seek to obtain criminal history information on 11 the requesting entity's behalf. However, an agency that receives a request under this subsection 12 shall not provide any criminal history information to the requesting entity but shall instead 13 provide the entity only a statement as to whether or not the agency deems the applicant's 14 criminal history information as providing just cause for not selecting the applicant under 15 subsection (d) of this section."
