11 manage the family's dairy farm; and

12 Whereas, Bob Scott became active in politics following the path of other family
13 members who were elected to public office in North Carolina, including his father who served 14 as Governor from 1949 to 1953 and as a United States Senator from 1954 to 1958; and

15 Whereas, Bob Scott served as Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina from 1965 to 16 1969 and as Governor from 1969 to 1973; and

17 Whereas, during his term as Governor, Bob Scott led the effort that resulted in the 18 passing of the State's first cigarette tax, which helped fund kindergarten education programs;
19 aided in the preservation of the State Capitol and the restoration of the Governor's Mansion;
20 worked to have Reed Gold Mine designated as a State Historic Site; and appointed the first 21 African-American to serve as a superior court judge; and

22 Whereas, Bob Scott was in the forefront of the move to unite all of the State's public 23 colleges and universities into one body, creating The University of North Carolina System, and 24 was instrumental in the reorganization of State departments and agencies to better serve the 25 citizens of this State; and

26 Whereas, after leaving the Governor's office, Bob Scott served on the State's 27 Agribusiness Council and was appointed by President Jimmy Carter to serve as Chair of the 28 Appalachian Regional Commission in 1977; and

29 Whereas, Bob Scott later served as President of the North Carolina Community 30 College System from 1983 to 1994; and

31 Whereas, Bob Scott received numerous awards and honors for his good works, 32 including the North Carolina Award for Public Service, North Carolina State University's 33 Watauga Award, and the North Carolinian Society Award; and

1 Whereas, Bob Scott was an active member of the Hawfields Presbyterian Church, 2 serving for a number of years as an Elder and Deacon; and
