AN ACT TO ALLOW FOR SEVERANCE OF SUMMARY EJECTMENT AND

FOR THE SEVERED MONETARY CLAIM TO BE CONTINUED WITH ALIAS AND

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 7A-223 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7A-223. Practice and procedure in small claim actions for summary ejectment.

(a) In any small claim action demanding summary ejectment or past due rent, or both, the complaint may be signed by an agent acting for the plaintiff who has actual knowledge of the facts alleged in the complaint. If a small claim action demanding summary ejectment is assigned to a magistrate, the practice and procedure prescribed for commencement, form and service of process, assignment, pleadings, and trial in small claim actions generally are observed, except that if the defendant by written answer denies the title of the plaintiff, the action is placed on the civil issue docket of the district court division for trial before a district judge. In such event, the clerk withdraws assignment of the action from the magistrate and immediately gives written notice of withdrawal, by any convenient means, to the plaintiff and the magistrate to whom the action has been assigned. The plaintiff, within five days after receipt of the notice, and the defendant, in his answer, may request trial by jury. Failure to request jury trial within the time limited is a waiver of the right to trial by jury.

(b) If either party in a small claim action for summary ejectment moves for a continuance, the magistrate shall render a decision on the motion in accordance with Rule 40(b) of the Rules of Civil Procedure. The magistrate shall not continue a matter for more than five days or until the next session of small claims court, whichever is longer, without the consent of both parties.

(b1) In any small claim action demanding summary ejectment and monetary damages, and where service of process has been achieved solely by first-class mail and affixing the summons and complaint to the premises pursuant to G.S. 42-29, the plaintiff, or an agent pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, may request that the claim for summary ejectment be severed from the claim for monetary damages. Upon a finding that personal service was not achieved for one or more defendants, the magistrate shall sever the claim for monetary damages and proceed with the claim for summary ejectment. If the magistrate severs the claim

1 for monetary damages, the plaintiff may extend the action in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule
2 4(d). The judgment of the magistrate in the severed claim for summary ejectment shall not
3 prejudice the claims or defenses of any party in the severed claim for monetary damages.

4 (c) The Administrative Office of the Courts is directed to develop a form for parties in 5 small claim actions for summary ejectment to inform them of the time line and process in 6 summary ejectment actions. The clerk of superior court shall make the form available to the 7 parties."

8 SECTION 2. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(h1), reads as rewritten:

9 "Rule 4. Process.

10 ...

11 (h1) Summons – When process returned unexecuted. – If a proper officer returns a 12 summons or other process unexecuted, the plaintiff or his agent or attorney may cause service
13 to be made by anyone who is not less than 21 years of age, who is not a party to the action, and 14 who is not related by blood or marriage to a party to the action or to a person upon whom 15 service is to be made. This subsection shall not apply to executions pursuant to Article 28 of 16 ~~Chapter 1 or summary ejectment pursuant to Article 3 of Chapter 42 of the General~~
17 ~~Statutes.~~ Chapter 1 of the General Statutes."

18 SECTION 3. G.S. 42-28 reads as rewritten:

19 "§ 42-28. Summons issued by clerk.

20 (a) When the lessor or his assignee files a complaint pursuant to G.S. 42-26 or 42-27,
21 and asks to be put in possession of the leased premises, the clerk of superior court shall issue a
22 summons requiring the defendant to appear at a certain time and place not to exceed seven days
23 from the issuance of the summons, excluding weekends and legal holidays, to answer the 24 complaint. The plaintiff may claim rent in arrears, and damages for the occupation of the 25 premises since the cessation of the estate of the lessee, not to exceed the jurisdictional amount
26 established by G.S. 7A-210(1), but if he omits to make such claim, he shall not be prejudiced 27 thereby in any other action for their recovery.

28 (b) In counties with 100,000 or more residents as of the most recent decennial federal 29 census, after the summons is issued, at the election of the plaintiff, the clerk shall either (i)
30 return the summons to the plaintiff or (ii) forward the summons to the sheriff for service. If the 31 magistrate severs the claim for monetary damages pursuant to G.S. 7A-223(b1), the plaintiff
32 may extend the action in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(d)."

33 SECTION 4. G.S. 42-29 reads as rewritten:

34 "§ 42-29. Service of summons.

35 (a) The officer receiving the summons shall mail a copy of the summons and complaint
36 to the defendant no later than the end of the next business day or as soon as practicable at the 37 defendant's last known address in a stamped addressed envelope provided by the plaintiff to the 38 action. The officer may, within five days of the issuance of the summons, attempt to telephone
39 the defendant requesting that the defendant either personally visit the officer to accept service, 40 or schedule an appointment for the defendant to receive delivery of service from the officer. If 41 the officer does not attempt to telephone the defendant or the attempt is unsuccessful or does 42 not result in service to the defendant, the officer shall make at least one visit to the place of 43 abode of the defendant within five days of the issuance of the summons, but at least two days
44 prior to the day the defendant is required to appear to answer the complaint, excluding legal 45 holidays, at a time reasonably calculated to find the defendant at the place of abode to attempt
46 personal delivery of service. He then shall deliver a copy of the summons together with a copy 47 of the complaint to the defendant, or leave copies thereof at the defendant's dwelling house or 48 usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein. If 49 such service cannot be made the officer shall affix copies to some conspicuous part of the 50 premises claimed and make due return showing compliance with this section.

1        (b) As used in this Article, and only with respect to service for summary ejectment
2 proceedings, in counties with 100,000 or more residents as of the most recent decennial federal
3 census, the term "officer" shall mean either (i) any person over the age of 21 years who is not a
4 party to the action and who is hired by the plaintiff or the plaintiff's agent or attorney for the 5 purpose of serving the summons and complaint for summary ejectment or (ii) the sheriff of the 6 county where the subject premises is situated."

7                SECTION 5. This act becomes effective October 1, 2015.
