6 specific findings as to the best permanent plans to achieve a safe, permanent home for the juvenile
7 within a reasonable period of time. ~~The judge shall inform the parent, guardian, or custodian that~~
8 ~~failure or refusal to cooperate with the plan may result in an order of the court in a subsequent~~

34 G.S. 7B-906.1(d)(3) or makes written findings that reunification efforts clearly would be
35 unsuccessful or would be inconsistent with the juvenile's health or safety. This determination
36 may be made at any permanency planning hearing. The court shall order the county department
37 of social services to make efforts toward finalizing the primary and secondary permanent plans

39 (c) ~~At the first permanency planning hearing held pursuant to G.S. 7B-906.1, the court~~
40 ~~shall make a finding about whether the efforts of the county department of social services toward~~
41 ~~reunification were reasonable, unless reunification efforts were ceased in accordance with~~
42 ~~G.S. 7B-901(e) or this section. Unless reunification efforts were previously ceased, at each~~
43 ~~permanency planning hearing the court shall make a finding about whether the reunification~~
44 ~~efforts of the county department of social services were reasonable. In every subsequent~~
45 ~~permanency planning hearing held pursuant to G.S. 7B-906.1, the court shall make written~~
46 ~~findings about the efforts the county department of social services has made toward the primary~~
47 ~~permanent plan and any secondary permanent plans in effect prior to the hearing. The court shall~~
48 ~~make a conclusion about whether efforts to finalize the permanent plan were reasonable to timely~~
49 ~~achieve permanence for the juvenile.~~

1 (d) At any permanency planning hearing under subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the
2 court shall make written findings as to each of the following, which shall demonstrate ~~lack of~~

11 parental rights have been terminated by court order and the other parent's parental rights have 12 been relinquished under Chapter 48 of the General Statutes, and a county director or licensed

27 construed to make the person a party to the proceeding solely based on 28 receiving notice and the right to be heard. Any individual whose parental 29 rights have been terminated shall not be considered a party to the proceeding
30 unless an appeal of the order terminating parental rights is pending, and a court
31 has stayed the order pending the appeal.

32 ...

33 (e1) The order shall be reduced to writing, signed, and entered no later than 30 days
34 following the completion of the hearing. If the order is not entered within 30 days following
35 completion of the hearing, the clerk of court for juvenile matters shall schedule a subsequent 36 hearing at the first session of court scheduled for the hearing of juvenile matters following the 37 30-day period to determine and explain the reason for the delay and to obtain any needed
