6 "Rule 3. Commencement of action.

7 (a) A civil action is commenced by filing a complaint with the court. The clerk shall enter 8 the date of filing on the original complaint, and such entry shall be prima facie evidence of the 9 date of filing.

10 A civil action may also be commenced by the issuance of a summons when

11 (1) A person makes application to the court stating the nature and purpose
12 of his action and requesting permission to file his complaint within 20 13 days and

14 (2) The court makes an order stating the nature and purpose of the action 15 and granting the requested permission.

30 party unless the court otherwise orders, every written motion other than one which may be heard 31 ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment and similar paper shall 32 be served upon each of the parties, but no service need be made on parties in default for failure

34 served upon them in the manner provided for service of summons in Rule 4.

1 (a1) Service of briefs or memoranda in support or opposition of certain dispositive
2 motions. – In actions in superior court, every brief or memorandum in support of or in opposition

5 the claims or parties in the action shall be served upon each of the parties at least two days before
6 the hearing on the motion. If the brief or memorandum is not served on the other parties at least 7 two days before the hearing on the motion, the court may continue the matter for a reasonable
