5 unprovoked attack in Ukraine. Shortly thereafter, Russian forces began missile and artillery
6 strikes on some of Ukraine's major cities, including its capital Kyiv; and 11 to defend their country from Russia's invasion; and

13 taking steps to punish the Russian government for its actions and to offer humanitarian relief to 14 the Ukrainian people; and

15 Whereas, the State of North Carolina also urges the United States government to 16 decrease the country's dependence on foreign oil by increasing our domestic production; and

17 Whereas, North Carolina taxpayers and public employees who teach, protect, and 18 otherwise serve should be granted additional recourse to hold the Russian Federation, its corrupt
19 leadership, and its state-owned corporations accountable in U.S. Courts for economic damage 20 done to the United States; and

21 Whereas, as American troops deploy to European countries to support allied efforts 22 to aid Ukraine, the State of North Carolina expresses its continued support for all members of the
