5 SECTION 1. G.S. 14-344.1 reads as rewritten:

6 "~~§ 14-344.1. Internet sale-resale of admission tickets in excess of printed price tickets.~~

7 (a) Internet Resale. – A person may resell an admission ticket under this section on the
8 Internet ~~at a price greater than the price on the face of the ticket~~ only if all of the following
9 conditions are met:

10 ~~(1) The venue where the event will occur has not prohibited the Internet ticket~~
11 ~~resale as provided under subsection (b) of this section.~~

12 (1a) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the total price at which a
13 person may resell an admission ticket does not exceed the sum of the total
14 price of the initial ticket, including all fees and taxes in connection with the 15 initial ticket. If initial tickets were purchased for a series of events, such as 16 season tickets for a sports team, the total resale price of a ticket for a single
17 event shall not exceed the total price of a comparable ticket, including all fees
18 and taxes.

19 (2) The person reselling the ticket offers the ticket for resale on a Web site with a
20 ticket guarantee that meets the requirements of subsection (c) of this section.
21 A prospective purchaser must be directed to the guarantee before completion
22 of the resale transaction.

23 (3) The person has obtained a certificate of registration under G.S. 105-164.29

30 ~~the resale of tickets under this section, the venue must file a notice of prohibition of the resale of~~
31 ~~admission tickets for a specified event with the Secretary of State and must post the notice of~~
32 ~~prohibition conspicuously on its Web site. The primary ticket seller for the event must also post~~
33 ~~the notice conspicuously on its Web site. A prohibition under this subsection may not become~~ 34 ~~valid until 30 days after the notice is posted on the venue's Web site. The prohibition expires on~~
35 ~~December 31 of each year unless the prohibition is renewed. To renew a prohibition, a venue~~
36 ~~must renew its notice of prohibition filed with the Secretary of State and must post the notice as~~

4 (b1) Service Fee. – A Web site enabling the resell of an admission ticket under this section
5 may charge a fee that does not exceed ten percent (10%) of the total price of the initial ticket for 6 each ticket resold on the Web site.

8 this section must guarantee to the purchaser a full refund of the amount paid for the ticket under
9 each of the following conditions:

10 (1) The ticketed event is cancelled. Reasonable handling and delivery fees may 11 be withheld from the refund price of a cancelled ticketed event if the ticket
12 guarantee on the Web site specifically informs the purchaser that handling and 13 delivery fees will be withheld from the refunded amount.

14 (2) The purchaser is denied admission to the ticketed event. This subdivision does 15 not apply if admission to the ticketed event is denied to the purchaser because 16 of an action or omission of the purchaser.

17 (3) The ticket is not delivered to the purchaser in the manner described on the 18 Web site or pursuant to the delivery guarantee made by the reseller, and the 19 failure results in the purchaser's inability to attend the ticketed event.

20 (c1) Resale Ticket Purchaser Information. – A person who resells an admission ticket
21 under this section shall provide the initial ticket issuer with the contact information of the resale
22 ticket purchaser to enable the initial ticket issuer to notify the resale ticket purchaser of any
23 change in the event circumstances, such as an event cancellation or rescheduling.

24 (c2) Prohibit Sale of Speculative Tickets. – A person shall not resell or offer to resell a
25 ticket that is not in the actual or constructive possession of the reseller at the time of the sale.

26 (c3) Other Prohibitions or Restrictions. – Subject to reasonable restrictions imposed by the 33 of higher education in North Carolina for sporting events.
