39 in Rule 3 of the North Carolina Rules of Appellate Procedure if the defendant appellant posts a 40 bond as provided in G.S. 42-34(b). No additional security under G.S. 1-292 is required. If the 41 defendant appellant previously filed an undertaking after appeal of the magistrate's judgment and 42 continues to pay periodic rent required by the prior undertaking after the judgment from the 43 district court, the continued periodic payments toward this undertaking will satisfy this provision 44 and maintain the stay of execution during the 30-day time period for taking an appeal. If the 45 defendant appellant fails to make rental payments as provided in the undertaking within five 46 business days of the day rent is due under the terms of the residential rental agreement, the clerk

51 the time the defendant appellant remains in possession of the premises after the judgment is

1 given. Rent shall be prorated if the judgment is executed before the day rent would become due 2 under the terms of the lease. The clerk of court shall disburse any rent in arrears paid by the 3 defendant appellant in accordance with a stipulation executed by all parties or, if there is no
4 stipulation, in accordance with the judge's order.

5 (b) If the judgment in district court is against the defendant appellant and the defendant
6 appellant appeals the judgment, it is sufficient to stay execution of the judgment if the defendant
7 appellant posts a bond as provided in G.S. 42-34(b). No additional security under G.S. 1-292 is 8 required. If the defendant appellant previously filed an undertaking after appeal of the 9 magistrate's judgment and continues to pay periodic rent required by the prior undertaking after 10 the judgment from the district court, the continued periodic payments toward this undertaking
11 will satisfy this provision and maintain the stay of execution during the appeal. If the defendant
12 appellant fails to perfect the appeal or the appellate court upholds the judgment of the district
13 court, the execution of the judgment shall proceed. The clerk of court shall not disburse any rent 14 in arrears paid by the defendant appellant until all appeals have been resolved."

 10 court that a breach of condition has occurred.

11 The clerk of superior court shall not accept such mortgage or deed of 13 counties in which the real estate is located, and the clerk of superior 14 court is satisfied that the real estate subject to the mortgage or deed of 15 trust is worth the amount to be secured thereby, and that the mortgage 16 or deed of trust is a first charge on said real estate. No such mortgage 17 or deed of trust shall be cancelled or surrendered until the approval of 18 the final account, unless substitution is permitted as provided in
